born, December 15, 1832, and was reared in Randolph County.
On the 2nd of October, 1852, he was married to Miss Lucy Jeter of this city, and they had three children: Fannie J., now Mrs. James W. Jones; George L., now of Cairo, Mo.; Jessie J., now of Kansas; and Addie, now Mrs. Kenneth John W., of St. Louis, Mo.; and Albertine who died at birth. The wife of those first two is still a student of nursing. The wife of those last two is left. Mr. Prather has a son and daughter on the farm at Centerville, Mo., whom Miss Elizabeth Ellsberry will care for.

Mr. Amick comes of two intelligent and highly respected families, the Amicks, of North Carolina, and the Kingsburys, of New York. His father, Capt. George Amick, was a native of the old North State. He married Miss Amy Kingsbury, of the family which occupies a position in the "History of Howard County." In 1837 he came to Randolph county, settling near Moberly, where he lived until his death, which occurred in October, 1847. His wife survived him up to August, 1873, dying at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. David Burberry. Both parents were members of the Baptist Church. Of their family of five sons and five daughters, but half are now living.

Andrew J. Amick was born in Howard county, near Boonsboro, December 15, 1829, and was reared in Randolph county. On the 20th of October, 1852, he was married to Miss Anna Jeter. There are six children: Fannie J., now Mrs. James M. Vince; George L., now of Cairo, Mo.; Jessie J., now of Kansas; Edwin A. J., now also of Kansas; John W., now of New Mexico; and Arthur R., now a student of Fayette. The mother of these died April 3, 1867. Mr. Amick was a second time married on the 4th of September, 1867, when Miss Elizabeth Nichols became his wife. She survived her marriage only a few years, dying December 19, 1870. To his present wife Mr. Amick was married August 10, 1873. Previous to her marriage to him she was a Mrs. Catharine Thomis, a widow of Hiram Thomis, late of Cass county. They have four children: Nina G., James Forrest, Alice Z. and Olive.

Mr. B. is a Virginian by birth, his parents, William Barry and Mary Ann Rankin, being also natives of that State. William R., who was born October 25, 1832, spent the first years of his life in Boone County. In December, 1882, Mr. Barry took charge of the mercantile house of Mr. Ford. On the 20th of January, 1859, in Boone County, Mr. Barry led to the altar Miss Elizabeth A., daughter of Capt. Joseph Seymore, formerly of Tenn., though Mrs. Barry herself has been a life long resident of Missouri. There are four children: Mary A., Orpha D., Susan Iva and Nancy E. One, Georgella, died in the fall of 1867.

Mr. B. is a Kentuckian by birth, his father, Joseph, having been one of the pioneers of that State, and marrying Susan (Pelmantry) Bozarth, also a Kentuckian. David B. was born February 14, 1818, and when but 14 years of age, took his life into his own hands and set to work to carve his way to fortune. He remained in Kentucky until 1840. In 1841, in Schuyler county, Mr. B. was married to Miss Elizabeth Nailer, daughter of George Truman and Rosa Newcome Nailer. To them were born 10 children, of whom nine are living: William Franklin, Nancy Elizabeth, Susan Mary, James David, George Thurman, Alexander Spencer, Emaline, Rosanna and Missouri.

Mr. Butts is a worthy scion of good old Virginia stock, and was himself born in that State, April 16, 1811. His father was Thomas Nugent Butts; his mother, Sarah C., daughter of Major James Broddus, who served five years in the Revolutionary War. James M., grew up and was married in Virginia, in August, 1833 to Miss Elizabeth M., daughter of Alfred M. Yager. In 1851, he moved to Randolph county. It was in the spring of the same year that Mr. Butts lost his wife. Mrs. Butts left eight children. Those living are: Martha A., wife of George Cross; Elizabeth C., wife of Thomas Brunnel; James W., Thomas Alfred, Margaret T., wife of George P. Hulett; Virginia C., wife of Robert Terrell; Mary E., wife of J. E. Hubbard, and Sarah F., wife of Thomas Hulett; the last two being twins. Mr. Butts joined the Bethel Primitive Baptist Church of Culpeper county, Va., in 1832. In December, 1851, Mr. Butts took to wife Mrs. Mary Ann, widow of Abel Burton and daughter of Bart Dameron, of North Carolina. Mrs. Butts has three children by her first marriage: Rebecca J., wife of Green Dameron; Laura Belle, wife of Scott Malone and Thomas F. Burton married Miss Sarah Barry, a sister of William P. Barry, whose sketch is one of the number in this history. To her second husband, Mrs. Butts has borne five children, two of whom died in infancy. Now living are George W., John S. and Lenora Ann, wife of Thomas Carr, of Boone county. Mr. and Mrs. B. have 38 grandchildren.

Dr. Frazier was a native of the Old Dominion - Virginia - born in Orange county, Va., April 23, 1828. His father's name was Leland Frazier, and his mother's name Ann Mallory.

On the 14th day of February, 1864, Dr. Frazier was married to Miss Deniza E. Epperly. They have seven children, namely: Joseph, Susan M., Mary B., Theresa, William L., Leland, and Oliver.

Four children - Joseph, Susan, Mary B. and Leland - are now deceased. The other three - William L., Leland and Oliver - are still alive. The oldest son died at the age of 24 and served with the Rebels in the Civil War. The second son died at the age of 26 and the third son died at the age of 28.

Mr. Haley is a native of the Blue Grass State, born in Fayette county, February 3, 1837, and was a son of Ambrose Haley, and wife, Malinda Sydner, the father born in Bourboun county October 11, 1811, but the mother a native of Keystone State. They had four children: George W., John T., Amanda, and Agnes E. The mother died in 1843, and the father afterwards married Cassandra Callaway, of Monroe County. They also have four children: Ambrose E., Joseph, Sarah, and Anna E. The father died in 1850. The same year of his father's death John T. Haley started to California, but was compelled to return because he fell sick. He soon came over into Monroe county and married Miss Agnes E. Haley, a cousin. One child was the issue of this union, Waller, now deceased.

Henry Harrison, Jr., was the son of Henry Harrison, Sr., a Virginian by birth, and whose wife was a Miss Polly Malone, of Irish descent. The father died in 1833 and the mother in 1850. Henry Harrison was born in Woodford county, Ky., October 8, 1811 and on the 19th of October, 1835, was married to Miss Mary McKinsey, who was born in Clark county, Ky., January 20, 1813. The living children are: John W., James E. and Orang M. John W. was married to Miss Nackey Patton in 1863. They had four children; three died in infancy. His wife died in 1874. James E. was married to Miss Kate Hedges in 1866. They have three children: Nancy M., John M., and Mary E. Orang M. still lives with his parents. To his present wife Mr. Harrison was married November 9, 1876. She was prior to her marriage to him, Mrs. Bette, the widow of William E. Patton of Howard county. Mr. and Mrs. Harrison have one son, J. Lester, born August 25, 1882.

William C. Myers, the grandfather of John C., first came to Kentucky in the days of Daniel Boone, from North Carolina. He there married Miss Christina Goff, and in 1819 they settled at Old Franklin in Howard county. His first wife died in 1849 and he afterwards married Miss Pauline Hunt, who is also now deceased. Of his family of children David Myers was born in Barren county, Ky., and he had four brothers and one sister. After he grew up he married Miss Eliza Shredar, of Randolph county, on the 9th of March, 1841. Of their family of six daughters and five sons, nine are still living: George T., James W., Porter D., Christina, John C., Hannah J., Henry C., Mary E., Susan A., the wife of Fred J. Nichols, and Lydia C.

John C. Myers was born in Randolph county. On the 14th of October, 1880, he was married to Miss Anna D. Clark, a daughter of Joseph G. and Elizabeth Clark, the formers of Sangamon county, Ill., where Mrs. Myers was born April 15, 1856.

They January 30, 1881, Mr. and Mrs. Westfall were blessed with five children. Two of these are deceased. Her children are: Allen C., Christina H., Henry F. who died at the age of eight years; Julia E., and Joseph L.

Mrs. Westfall was born in Randolph county, Mo., December 3, 1841. Her parents were Paul DeGarmo and Sarah, nee Bowman, he of Pennsylvania, born June 9, 1812, and she of Virginia, born June 2, 1807. They were married March 1, 1832. His first wife died October 16, 1845. By her he reared four children including Mrs. Westfall, namely; Ezra, who is supposed to have been murdered by the Indians in California in 1881; Angeline, now the wife of Joseph Vince; Alfred and Mrs. Westfall. On the 28th of June 1847, the father was married to Miss Elizabeth Westfall, also originally of Virginia. She died February 3, 1872, leaving two children: Henry B. and John W. To his last wife, Mrs. Hulda Meals, of Randolph county, Mr. DeGarmo was married May 30, 1872. There was no issue. Mrs. Westfall, the subject of this sketch, or rather Miss Elizabeth DeGarmo, was married to Jacob C. Westfall, a nephew of her father's second wife, on the 25th of August, 1864. He was a native of Virginia, born January 30, 1828. Mr. and Mrs. Westfall were blessed with five children, one of whom is deceased. Her children are, namely: Allen C., Christina M., Henry P., who died at the age of eight years; Anna E., and Joseph L.

Mr. W. was born in Virginia July 8, 1822, and when 16 years of age, came out with his parents, Cornelius and Edith (Wilson) Westfall, to Missouri. They removed to Missouri in 1838 and settled in Randolph county, where the father died in 1874 and the mother in 1850. William H. was married here January 17, 1867, to Miss Mary Gee. Mr. and Mrs. Westfall have two children: William H., Jr., and Lela. Mr. Westfall's father was born in Virginia February 8, 1790. The mother was born in the Old Dominion June 4, 1797.
